4.1 Website Discussion

MONSU SCSE discussed areas needing more direct communication to stakeholders in regards to navigating club sign ups and improving the accessibility to do so for students.

4.2 General Updates

Caitlyn Dunne and Daniel Stonehouse updated SCSE regarding recent arrangements surrounding O-Fest and O-Fest after dark.

4.3 Committee of Melbourne Report

Caitlyn Dunne reported on her meeting with Damien of the Committee of Melbourne. This was in regards to CoM's interest in holding an International Student Festival, where Caitlyn discussed what services are currently being provided within Monash in this area. Council discussed interest in potentially offering involvement to relevant clubs if the format of the event is suited once it has been developed further. Caitlyn will update council throughout the year if further developments arise.

4.4 Supporting students

Student council discussed the need to support returning students in regards to concerns of stigma and social isolation in the wake of Covid-19. Caitlyn Dunne asked that ideas and thoughts be emailed to her so that working groups may be established. Caitlyn has also reached out to Christine from Off Campus Residential Services and the International Student Engagement Team.

4.5 Addressing workload

Council discussed the expectations of workload in the first semester and acknowledged that with reduced numbers it will be highly demanding and require presence and commitment. It was also discussed the importance of engaging others within our circles to ensure all work can be satisfied.
